never miss a day

Campaign

From playing in the yard, and working on homework, to cooking dinner together, Fatherhood 365 highlights the important role fathers play in their children's lives. Local fathers are encouraged to submit family photos capturing candid and special moments with their children. Each week the VOICE will select a photo to be featured in its print edition as the "Father of the Week." And on Father's Day the VOICE will release a Father's Day calendar and host an event honoring the featured dads. The Father's Day Event will celebrate fathers on Father's Day and allow families selected for inclusion in the calendar to fellowship.

About us

Brown Publishing and Communications is a multi-platform media company, which includes news weekly print and digital editions, two websites, six social media sites, and a strategic communications firm specializing in community outreach and engagement, with a combined reach of 70,000.

With a shortened name and expanded editorial coverage of the diverse Inland Empire community, the VOICE, a colorful weekly news magazine reaches the region's influencers, community leaders, and elected officials. Building on it is 42 year history; the VOICE continues to tell stories that help build better communities in Riverside, and San Bernardino.

Fatherhood 365 is in partnership with Street Positive an award-winning program that advocates various prevention and intervention campaigns among parents and youth. Since 2007 the organization has hosted The Million Father March to encourage fathers to stay committed to the educational lives of their children on the first day of school and throughout the school year.

National Fatherhood Initiative Aims To Increase Father Involvement

Twenty-four million children in the United States live without their biological father at home. And unfortunately, many excellent social service programs focus mostly (or solely) on resources for mothers and children, but what about all-building for fathers? How are they being served?

From your organization's intake forms to the attitudes and behaviors of staff, to the family programs offered, it's important to consider father-focused programs and resources in your work. Often, increased father involvement is a "win-win" for all, because an involved father brings many benefits to mothers and children. So, you're convinced you need to do something for dad. But how you may be asking:

- What should we offer fathers?
- How do we start a fatherhood program and recruit dads?
- How can we keep and build up dads since we get them involved?

Enter National Fatherhood Initiative's low, results- and high-intensity fatherhood skill-building resources that help you customize fatherhood programs to engage dads in a way that is unique for your organization and setting. You choose your implementation strategy - NH provides you with the approach and tools to create a cohesive and effective fatherhood program.

Every day that I spend quality time with my child, it makes me feel a little more complete inside as a father.

With Local Community Organizations Support Proposition 47

Earlier this week the ICAIC joined New America Media in co-hosting a media briefing on Proposition 47. The topic is complex and controversial. If approved, this law would reduce the classification of most nonviolent property and drug crimes from a felony to a misdemeanor, reduce sentences of first-time offenders, and would be able to apply for.
